ULM

Ulm American High School Neu Ulm, West Germany

Class, spirit, academics, sports, togetherness are a few things that make up our school. Through our high school years we are touched by these things and more. Through daily contact with school life we are changed forever. As well as being touched, we also touch others by our participation in events at UHS. Our input inevitably alters the outcome of these events. Every Marauder on these pages of this yearbook has affected our lives. All of this is the "Marauder Touch"—Amy Uuereb, Editor.

A Touch Of Ulm

In or out of school, Ulm is a beautiful place to live and relax.

Pictures Clockwise; (1) Downtown Ulm, a great place to shop (2) The back of the Elementary School, before construction. (3) The crowded lunchline (4) The temporary portable (5) The famous trash can, it was removed because of the construction. (6) Wiley Field during a football game. Ulm Faculty!

Either in the classroom or after school activities, Ulm's Staff is ready to help the students anyway they can.

Mrs. Cash looks up a phone number for Mrs. King.

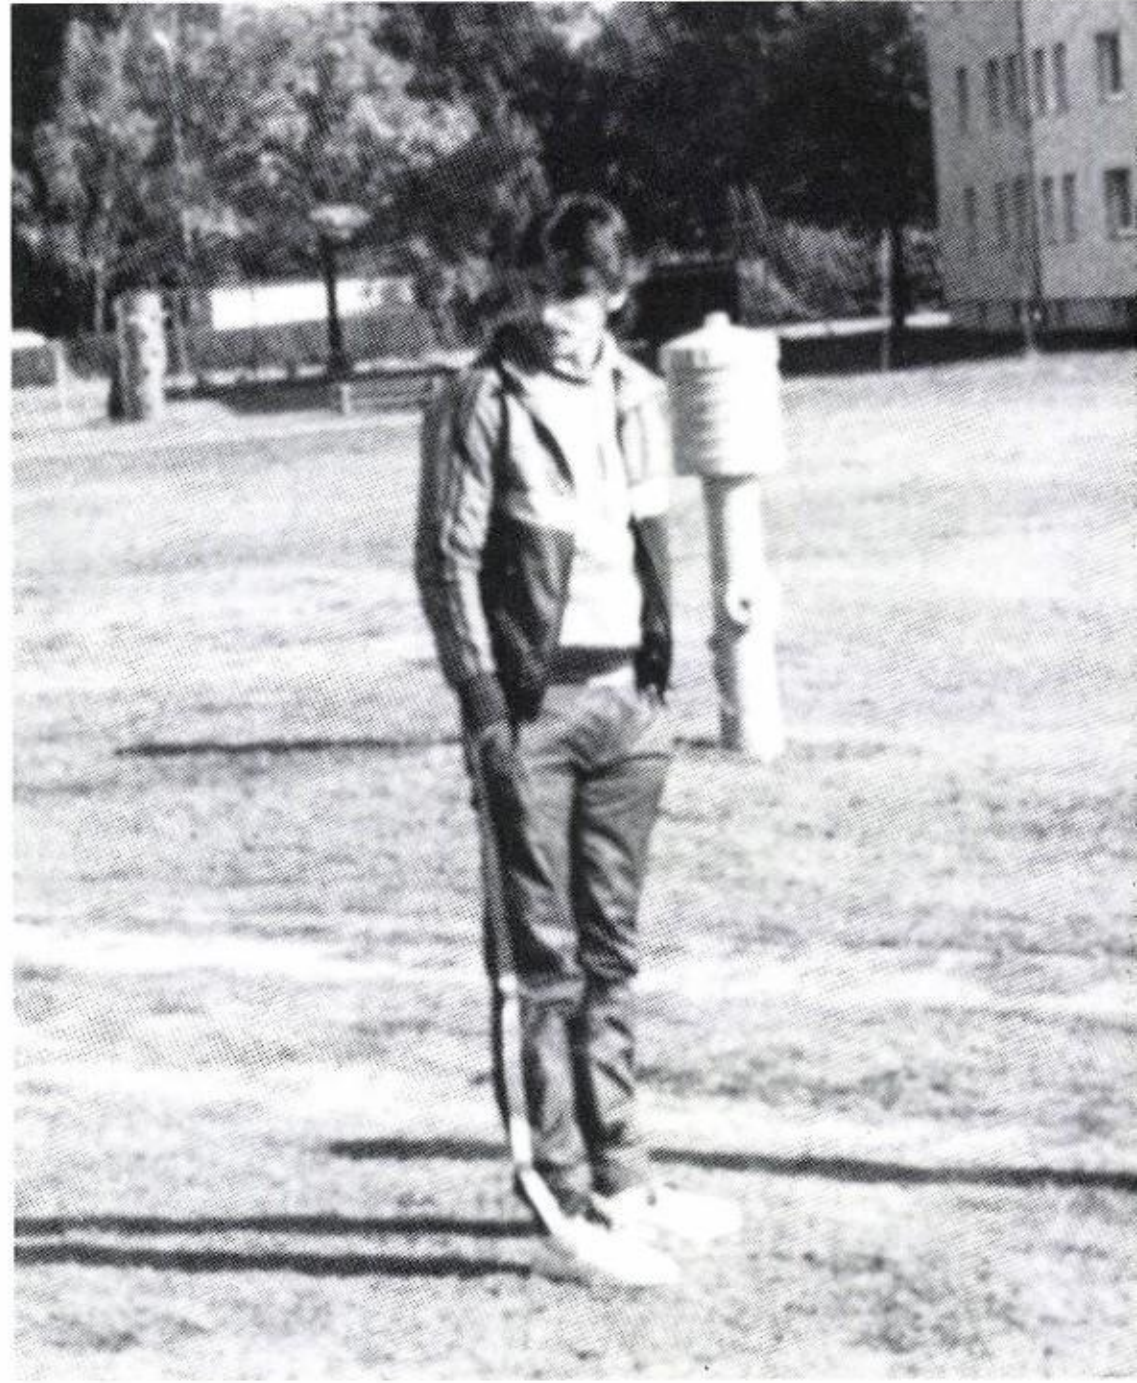

Teachers, like students, enjoy a break from the set schedule. Pep rallies and extra-curricular activities are very popular with the staff.

Top Right: Mr. and Mrs. King introduce Mr. Rosser and his football team at a pep rally.

Mr. Nesheim shows Tracy Sherman how to thread a loom.

A Breath Of Morning!

Top Right: Van Boone stops to remember if he locked the door or not.

Above: Pia Greenwall walks in to school smiling but the day ahead might not always be as happy.

Right: Michelle Richardson tries to beat the crowded hallways but it is even worse outside.

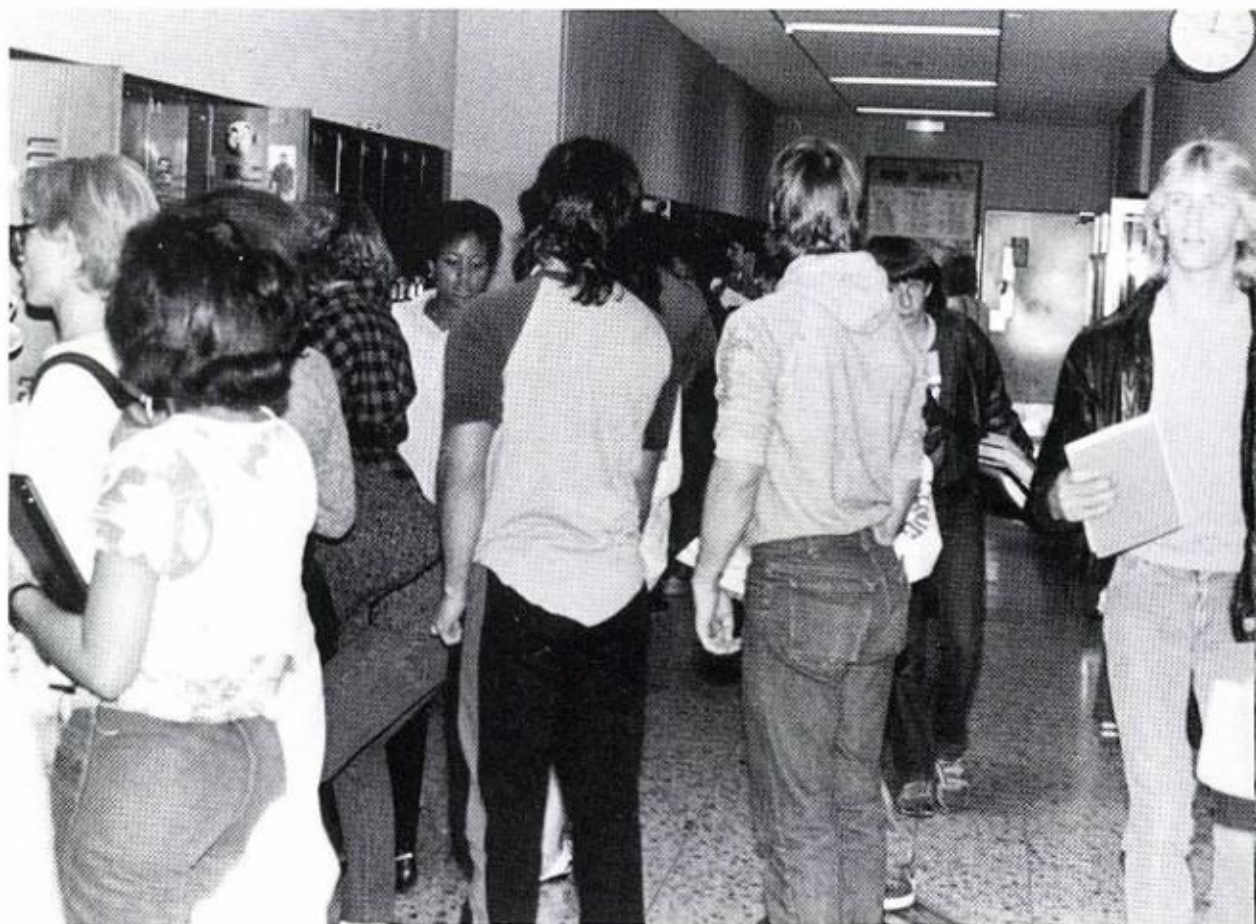

School begins each morning at 8:20. Students stream in by different modes of transportation. Some arrive by bus after a long ride from Memmingen or Gunzberg, while others walk or ride from Vorfeld Housing area.

Clockwise: 1) Chris Degler decides on needed supplies for the day. 2) Phil Jones escorts a new "girl" to school. 3) The Memmingen bus. 4) Ira Briggs rolls in for another day.

Clockwise: 1) Senior Hall is always one of the centers of activity. 2) Students enjoy the hallway bustle for as many seconds as they can squeeze from the clock before entering the classroom door. 3) Gina Pennington and Kirsten Miller share a laugh before class.

Keeping In Touch In The Halls

Almost 1½ hours of the average students day is spent in the halls of UHS. That's longer than any class period. The time is not wasted but is used to keep up on all the news of the day. We all keep in touch in the halls.

The Class With Class.

Seniors!

Top: Kristy and James say hello to each other.

Above: Jackie dreams about the warm beaches of Puerto Rico.

Right: "What, more homework?" Tony asks.

The senior class showed their spirit in everything they did. They all worked toward graduation but they definatly left their mark at UHAS. Good Luck Class of 1986!

Smiling Seniors

Senior year is full of challenge and triumphs. It is a time of just rewards and hopeful anticipation. It is also a time of mischief and it takes a good smile to get out of trouble. Jenifer Stephens displays the smile that gets her out of trouble. (right)

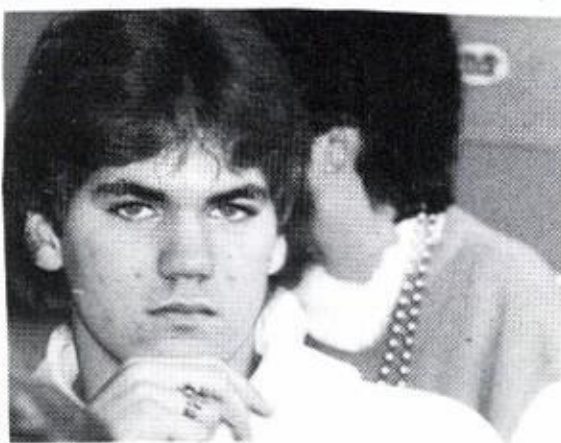

Studios Seniors

It's not all smiles though. Mitch Jaffey and Kelli Cathey show another side of senior life.

Senior life is not always fun. The future weighs heavy on the shoulders of a senior. Graduation is great but it comes with a TOUCH of reality.

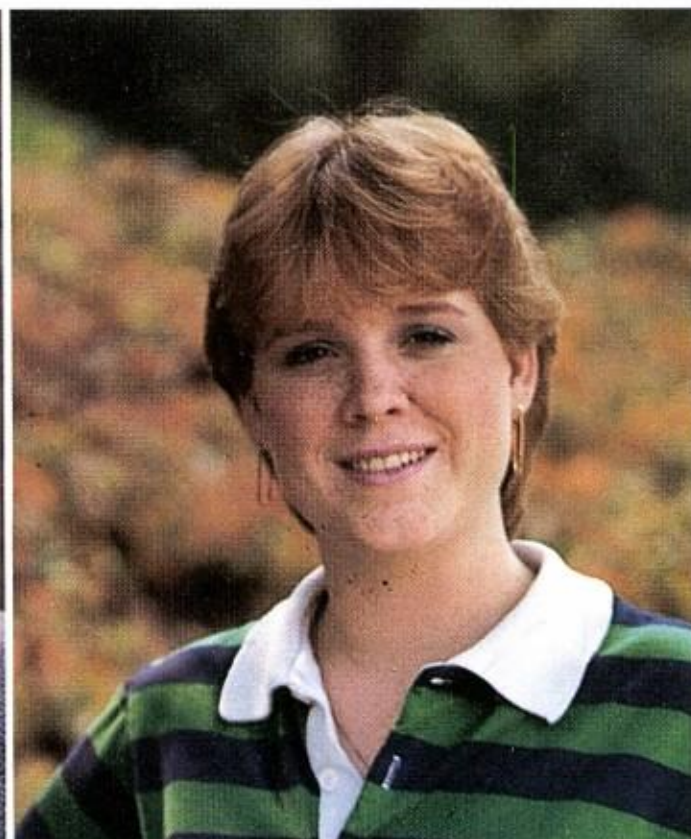

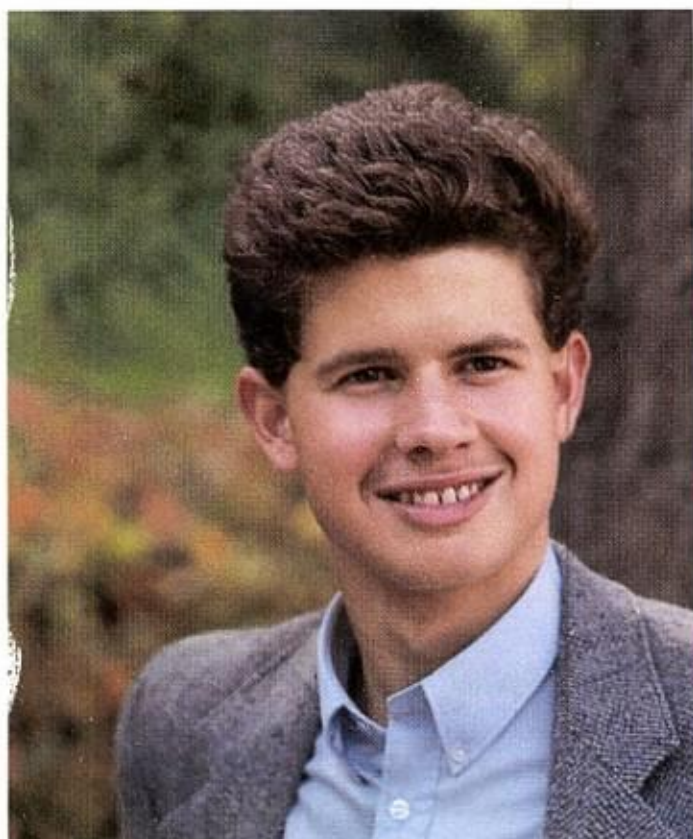

Kelli Cathey, Sharyn Howard, Jackie Rivera, Jenifer Stephens, Julie Szilagyi, and Sydney Jones show humor smooths the roughest roads.

It has been said that clothes make the person, but we here at Ulm High School know that that is not always true. Our unique personalities and friendliness touch many lives proving that we have true class.

Having Fun

Having fun is one of the things that Ulm High is all about. Our school is filled with many happy faces that reflect contentment which is vital to the learning process. From cheezin' it up to goofing off, our unique atmosphere enriches the spirit at our school.

The Mat Slappers!

The Ulm wrestling team, coached by Mr. Rosser this year was small. The team didn't win any meets because they didn't have a full team. However, they proved that they were true Marauders by winning most, if not all of their matches at each meet. The Ulm Wrestlers are: Capt. James Nichols, Bob Haro, Joe Haro, Greg Pece, Ramon Rogregiuz, Emmitt Hines, Stoney Hanes. Managers: Jenny Jimenz, Kari Miller.

Special Events

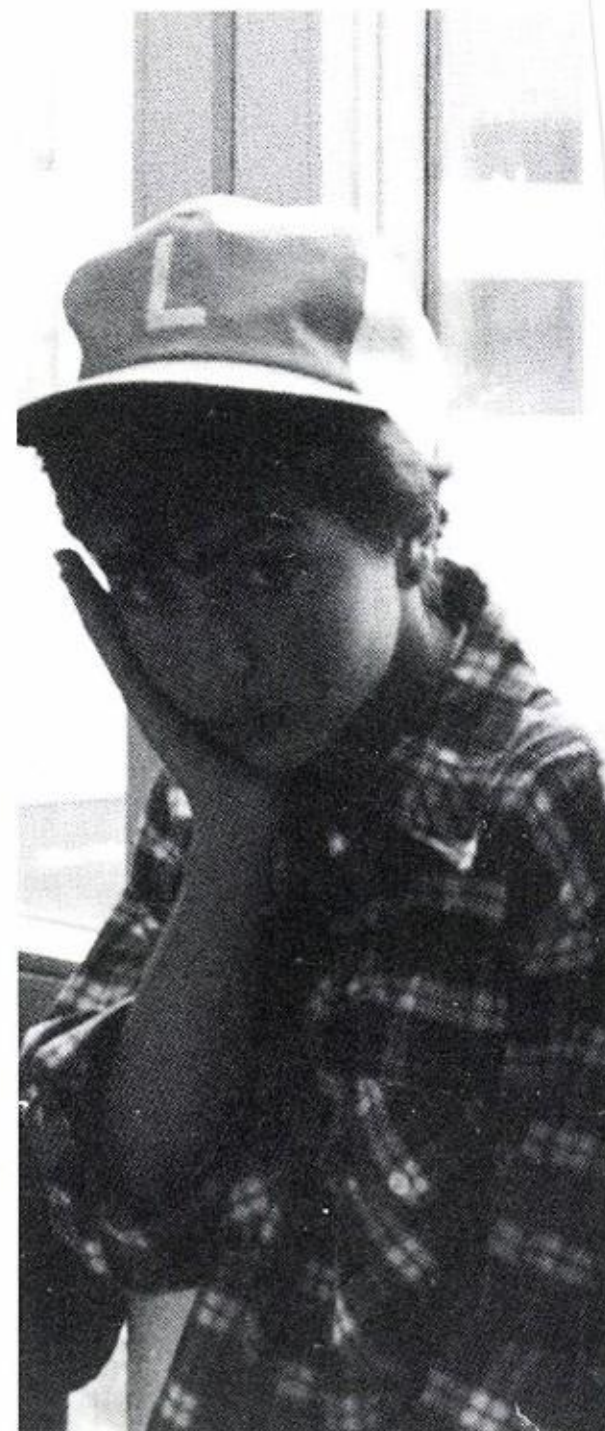

Very few weeks pass without at least one special event to break up a set routine. These interruptions make life at UHS less regimented and more fun.

Homecoming '85 had Marauders in Motion as it's theme. Students depicted the theme using deep, dark jungles, hot air balloons among other things. The theme was also used as a guideline to decorate wagons as floats, a new idea this year. Juniors won 1st prize for their hall and the seniors captured top honors for their float. The week began with Switch Day, followed by 50's Day, Rambo Day, Senior Diction Day. Thursday, an exciting powder puff football game was played in which the junior/freshman team blanked the senior/sophomore team, 12-0.

Thursday evening a huge bonfire roared behind the school. The fire and Friday's boisterous pep rally provided the necessary shove for the football team victory over Fulda, 31-30 in a real nail-biter. The girls were also victorious in volleyball, assuring themselves a berth in the championships.

At Ulm High School, the classroom touches everyone in a different way. When the students enter their classrooms, they find learning, humor, drama, or perhaps sleep.

Sometimes events outside the classroom invade the class giving a carnival-like atmosphere.

Variety

Here at Ulm High School, we offer a wide variety of clubs and organizations for the students to chose from. The clubs and organizations, however, are nothing without the participation of the student body. They are the ones who make activities worthwhile.

Clockwise:

Model United Nations

This year the MUN students represented the country of East Germany. Jon Pece was ambassador and the delegation consisted of 10 members. The students did research on East German opinions of world issues so they might be able to participate in MUN activities at the Congresgebouw in The Hague, Netherlands.

A Touch Of Spirit

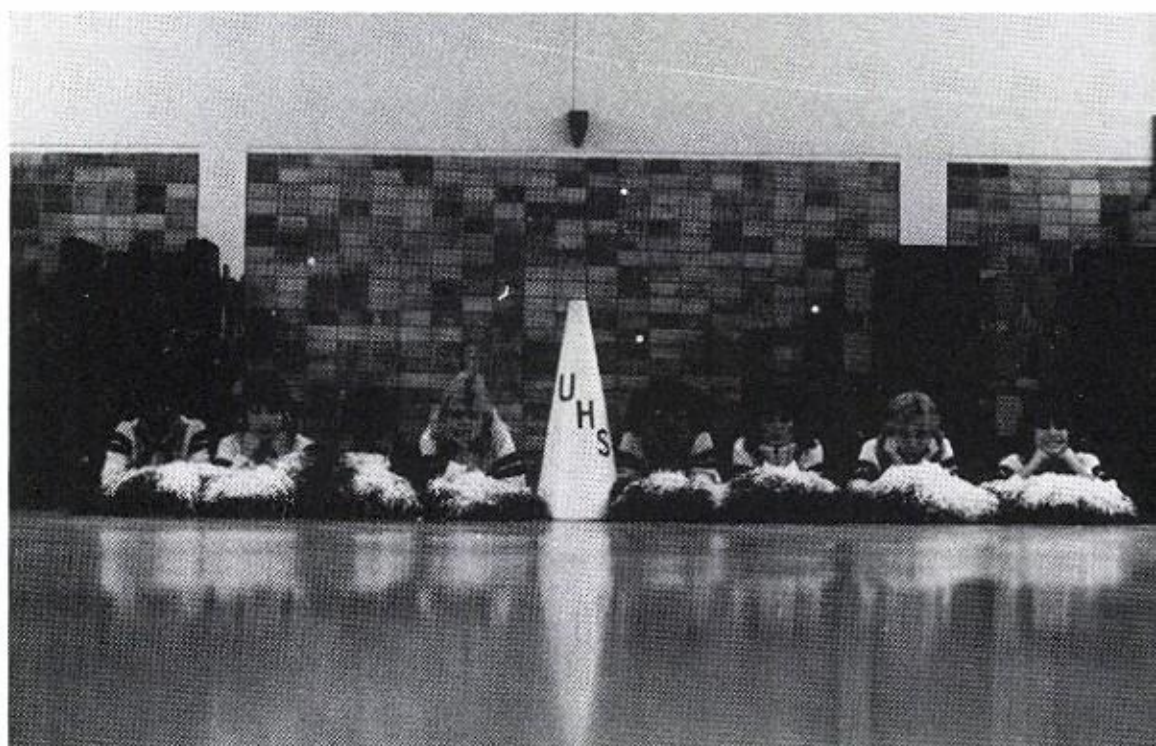

The power force of cheerleaders showed their spirit through energetic cheers and chants. From pep rallies to homecoming their enthusiasm has infected the student body tremendously.

Winter Cheerleaders

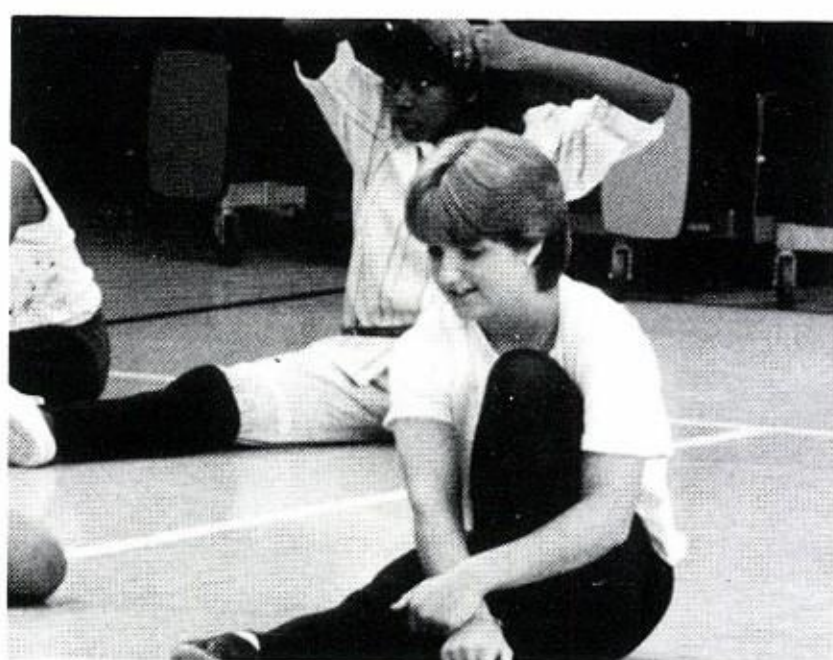

The basketball cheerleaders had a tough act to follow. Lots of problems and loss of crowd support seemed to major in the begining but the girls shone through by the end of the season. Six hours of cheering a weekend and a lot of practice proved to be very effective in the long run. All the cheerleaders thank Mrs. Moore for all her time and support.

A Touch Of Journalism . . . Yearbook Staff

The yearbook staff took on a new challenge this year. Not only was the staff under a new advisor, they had no experience either. They worked weekends and holidays along with after school to meet the deadlines and hassels to bring you the "MARAUDER TOUCH."

Construction for our three million dollar additions began October 30, 1985. Construction is to be completed before school opens next year. The additions will include several classrooms, such as an elementary music room and library, a video arts studio, and a photo lab. Also, we will have several major renovation projects that will improve various areas within the present school building itself.

Student Life!

The halls of UHS echo with laughter and complaining. Marauder life, like life everywhere, is filled with ups and downs. Some days everything is great while other days are not so good. Even the bad seems a little better, though, because you are a Marauder!

Pep Rallies are generally held the Friday before a home game. Students crowd in the high school gym the last period of the day to listen to the coaches praise their teams, learn a chant from the energetic cheerleaders, and get fired up for the upcoming game. One of the highlights is watching Nova Tanz performing a new dance routine. To some students, the best part of the pep rallies is the early dismissal from school!

A Punch Of Pep!

A Crash Of Cheers!

Top: Cindy Jones and James Nichols having a friendly chat. Top right: If you couldn't tell, it's Ami Kennelly's birthday. Right: We want our food and we want it now!

Break is a very popular part of the Marauder student day. Normally at 10:15, the students are given a 15 minute break during which organizations sell anything from hotdogs for 50¢, to miniature candy bars for 15¢. The Gymnasium Hallway, the library, and the Junior/Senior Hall are the most popular places to eat and talk. The least desirable place is in the "crushing crowd" in front of the break sales table.

A Short Pause.

Field trips are one exciting way to get away from school for a day or more. German, French, and CWE are a few of the classes that went on trips this year. The basketball overnights, the leadership conference, MUN conference, Ski Week and Hinterbrand were the major trips that organizations went on. To all, they were a lot of fun.

Ski Week 86 was held the first week of February in Berchtesgaden. 35 students and Mr. and Mrs. King went to the Skitop Ski School to either learn to ski or learn to ski better. Ski Week wasn't all fun though. An hour of homework and a 9 P.M. curfew every night was required of everyone. When the kids weren't skiing, they played in the snow and talked in the ski lodge. On Friday, the ski races were held. Everyone was split up by his or her ability. Overall, Ulm placed in over half of the winner slots. Everyone though, learned how to ski better and had a fabulous time.

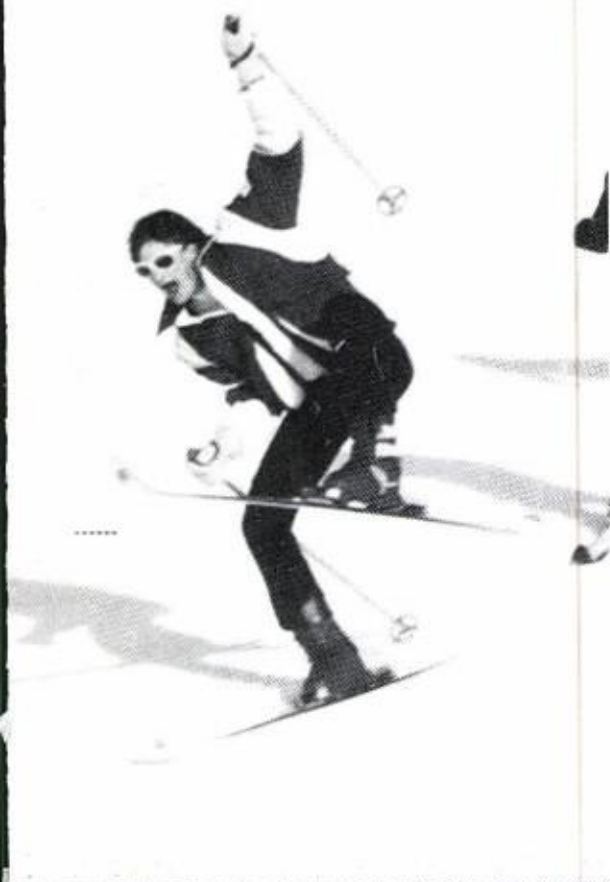

Enjoying A White . . .

Ski Week '86!

Even though skiing was the main activity, everyone went shopping at the sport store, had a soda in the Bavarian Bar of the General

Walker, or just enjoyed the beautiful view and the fresh air of the Bavarian Alps.

In order to be considered for membership in the National Honor Society, a student must achieve a cumulative grade point average of 3.3. Students are then further judged on several other factors including character and citizenship. Once in, the Society, members must maintain a 3.0 average and continuously demonstrate characteristics befitting the Society. To be asked to join is truly a touching honor.

Headlines Of 1985-86

On January 28, 1986, the Space Shuttle Challenger exploded 20 miles above Cape Canaveral killing all eight of its passengers.
In November of '85, President Reagan and Premier Gorbachev held a summit in Geneva, Switzerland. They talked about nuclear arms control and world peace.
In the Philippines, President Marcos was caught in election fraud causing the country to split into two factions. Mrs. Aquino eventually claimed victory.
Apartheid still is in control in South Africa. Riots, bombings, and bloodshed happened everyday. A few recording stars got together and wrote the song "Sun City". All the money raised was to help bring an end to Apartheid.
Terrorism was a main issue, especially in Europe. The Achille Laurel hijacking was one form and the bombings at Rhein Main airfield and the Rome and Vienna airports were another. Reagan declared all out war against terrorism.
Three years after the Tylenol poisoning, a woman died after taking Tylenol capsules laced with cyanide. The company stopped making the capsules all together.
AIDS is still the most talked about disease. After Rock Hudson's death, Elizabeth Taylor started raising money for research. Fourteen year old Ryan White was barred from school because he had contacted the disease from a blood transfusion.

LOCAL NEWS

The mark rate dropped drastically causing problems for the Americans in Germany. In less than a year, the Deutschmark dropped over a mark per dollar.
On December 5th, a new Burger King restaurant opened its doors in Neu Ulm. It is just like those back home. It hired over 100 people.
Since Neu Ulm is a model installation, it has been going through major changes. Construction can be seen everywhere you look. Some of the places under renovation are: The Rec Center, the Chapel, and our school.
4/5 FA moves from Wiley Barracks to Ft. Riley KS.

SPORTS

In the World series, the Kansas City Royals came out on top in a tough fight against the St. Louis Cardinals. Superbowl XX was an easy victory for the Chicago Bears. They were 10 point favorites over the New England Patriots. They completed the season with only one loss.

TOP MOVIES

Rambo, First Blood Part 2, The Color Purple, Out of Africa, St. Elmo's Fire, Rocky IV, White Nights, Teen Wolf, Back to the Future, Jewel of the Nile, Romancing the Stone, Part 2.

TOP SONGS

The Superbowl Shuffle, the Chicago Bears; Count Me Out, New Edition; We Built this City, Starship; Party all the Time, Eddie Murphy; Friends, Dionne Warick and Friends; Smoking in the Boys Room, Mötley Crüe; Cherish, Kool and the Gang; Say You, Say Me, Lionel Richie.

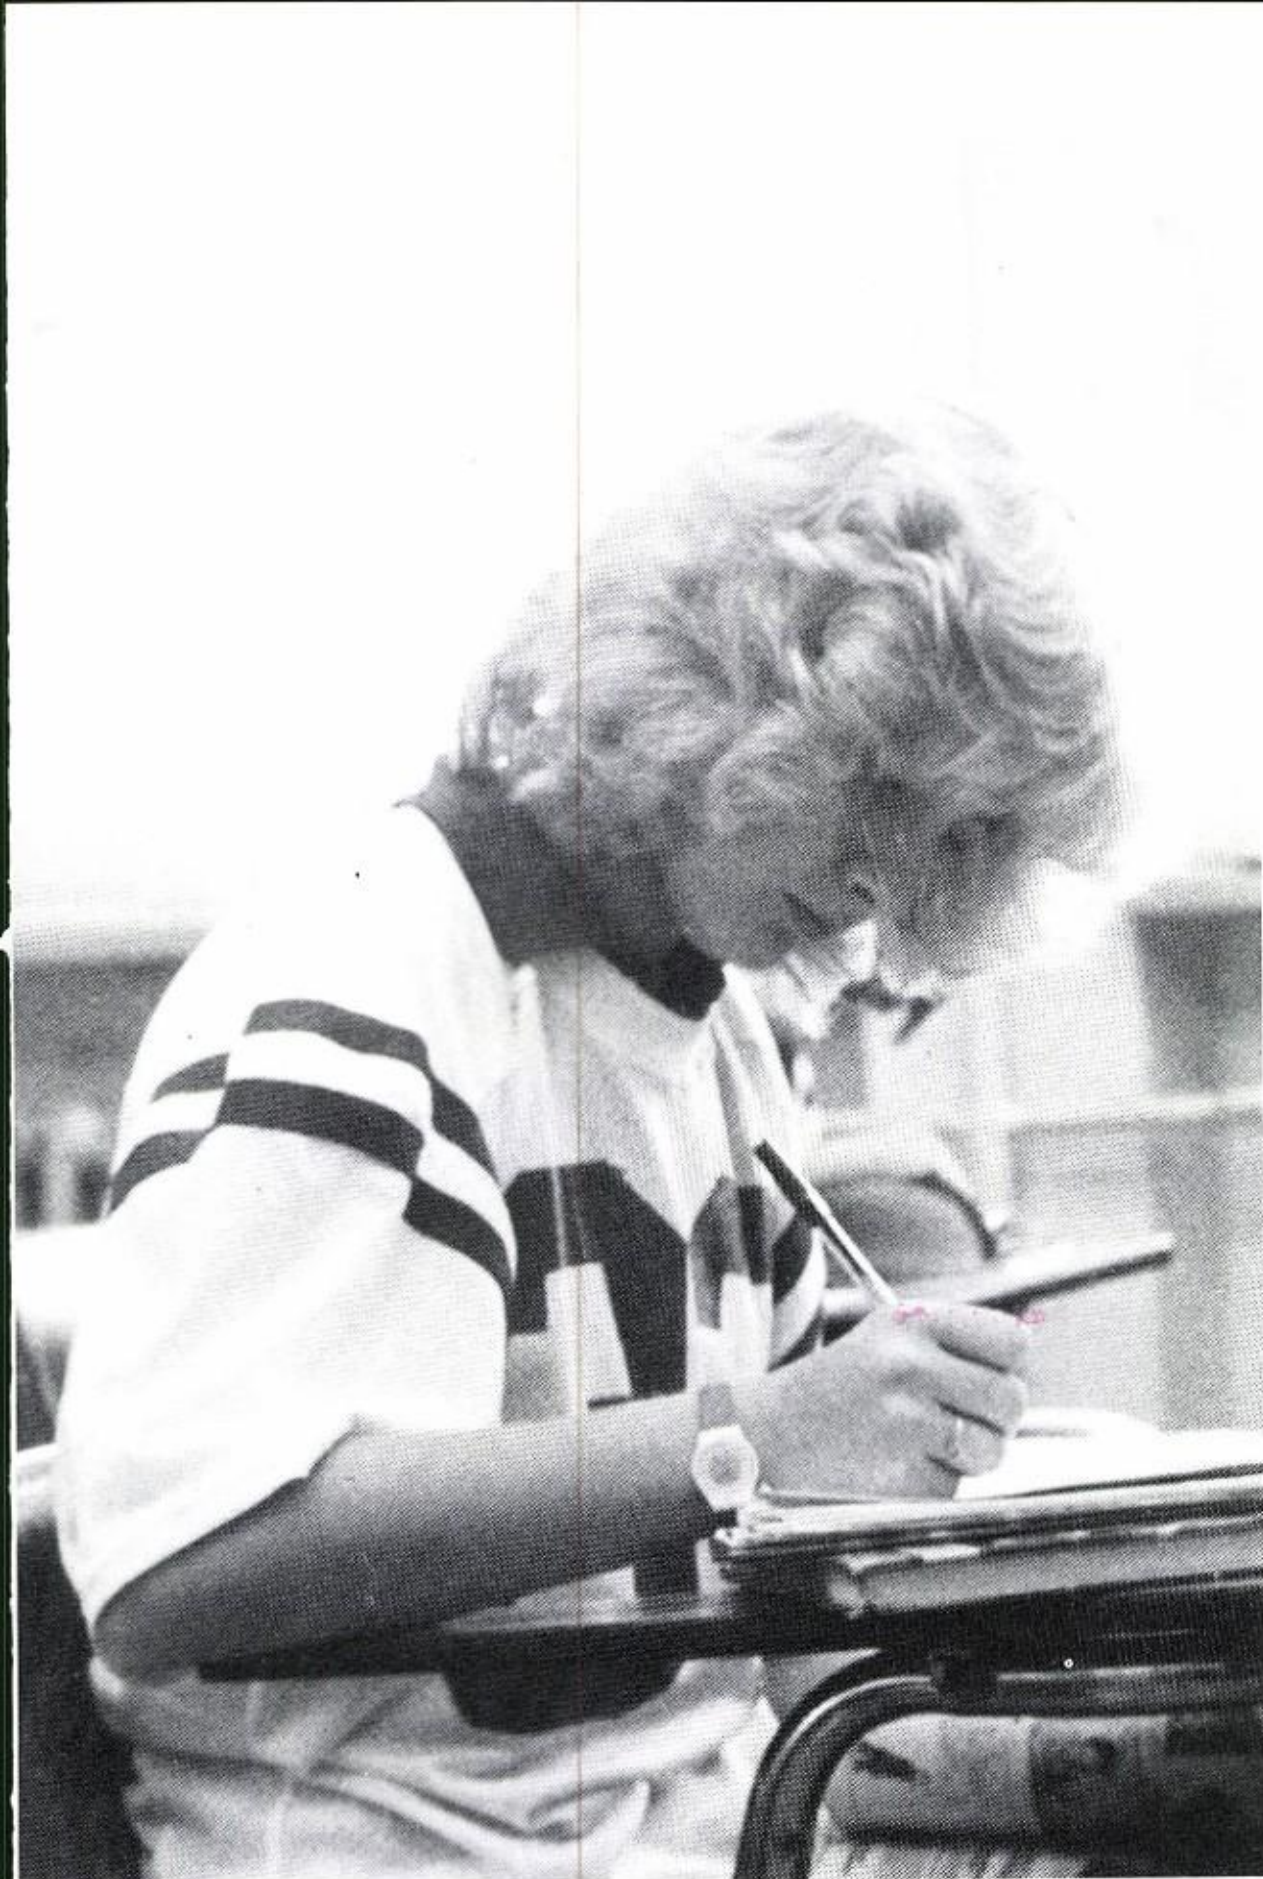

GAMES AND TOYS

Transformers are still popular this year. Rambo Dolls and Carebear Cousins are new this year. Cabbage Patch Kids are favorites among little girls and Trivial Pursuit is the most popular game on the market.

FASHION TRENDS

Girls: Tight Skirts, Stirrup Pants, Oversized Sweaters, Long Blouses, and Teddy Bear Coats are the fashion styles. Pastels were very popular, even for winter. Paisley was the kind of shapes and designs found on fabric.

Guys: Long coats, Nike hi-tops and polo shirts are what every guy is wearing. Almost every guy, especially skiers, wouldn't be caught without their sunglasses.

Right Left: Kari Miller writes a letter to President Reagan expressing her feelings about the Summit.

Bottom Left: Mr. Peter, Mr. Moore and Mr. Hart talk about how good the food is at Burger King.

A Flair Of Fashion!

Marauders have set the pace. They definitely know the latest in fashion, makeup and hairstyle. We get a little bit crazy but if we didn't who would the other schools and Germans copy?

We have the basics in fashion and hair but we have a tendency to stretch it out. To understand this, you must venture into the halls and listen to what the students are talking about. There is only one way you can dress like a Marauder. You must be one!

Bottom Center: Derek K. proves that Toga Dress is the hit of the season. Notice the natural headdress and white socks.

Center: Girls wearing guys clothes seem to be quite popular at UHS. Julie and Stephanie really get into it!

Mini skirts, ski hats, and sunglasses are enjoyed by the male gender lately. Rob Peralis, Rob Russel, and Tony Malone really love it.

Living in a military community and with the recent release of Rambo has prompted army fashion, especially with 7th grader Walley Schafer.
